

CEASEFIRE ...Messages of Support

"I believe that operation CEASEFIRE is the most significant law enforcement tool to arise in over a decade."

Robert Beaird; Jackson County Prosecutor

"I truly believe this project to be very important to the crime fighting efforts in this region. It's most gratifying that project CEASEFIRE allows for federal prosecution of these cases with much tougher sentencing."

Paul J. Morrison, District Attorney, Tenth Judicial District

"We see Project CEASEFIRE as not only a crime-fighting tool, but as a positive step in revitalization and rebuilding our neighborhoods. If our citizens feel safe and secure they are more likely to take pride in their neighborhoods."

George F. Roberts, Acting Chief of Police, Kansas City, Missouri

"Project CEASEFIRE will assist in lowering the rate of violent crimes committed by armed felons in the greater Kansas City area. Law enforcement must be proactive in such programs in order to foster security and safety for our citizens."

Robert M. Beckers, Chief of Police, Grandview, Missouri

"A project such as this (CEASEFIRE), supported and promoted by the Kansas City Metropolitan Crime Commission, will be a success and will nurture hope and pride in our citizens regardless of geographic location."

William P. Adams, Director of Public Safety, Gladstone, Missouri

"The CEASEFIRE Project has the potential for being a vital crime- fighting tool in the Kansas City metropolitan area by reducing gun crimes. "

William H. Biggerstaff, Chief of Police, North Kansas City, Missouri

"A campaign like CEASEFIRE can do much to enhance the quality of life and level of safety for residents in the core of Kansas City as well as those in the outlying suburbs."

Ellen T. Ramon, Chief of Police, Lenexa, Kansas
