ATF ANNOUNCES $5,000 REWARD IN FOOTHILL HIGH SCHOOL FIRE

SAN FRANCISCO – Acting Special Agent in Charge Karl Anglin of the San Francisco Field Division, Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives (ATF), announced today that ATF is posting a $5,000 reward for information leading to the arrest and conviction of those responsible for the fire that occurred at Foothill High School in suburban Pleasanton.

ATF and the Pleasanton Police and Fire Departments are investigating the Jan. 22 fire that caused an estimated $225,000 worth of damage to Foothill High School. The ATF reward is in addition to the $5,000 being offered by the Pleasanton Unified School District.

“We are all impacted when a school is attacked,” Anglin said. “We urge anyone with any information to please contact ATF or the Pleasanton Police Department. We will follow up on any and all leads reported to us.”

Information regarding this case should be reported to:

ATF at 925-479-7521

or

Pleasanton Police Department at 925-931-5100

ATF is the federal law enforcement agency with jurisdiction for investigating fires, arson and explosives incidents. More information on ATF and its programs is at www.atf.gov.
